PHOTOCOPYING TEACHING RESOURCES FOR USE IN SCHOOL

Copyright applies to materials in the Teaching Resources Collection just as it does to all other types of material. If you wish to copy a resource for use in a school carefully read any copyright statements contained within the resource. They are normally on the same page as the publication information.

Unless a resource explicitly states that it can be freely copied for educational purposes you cannot make multiple photocopies of materials here at BGU and distribute them to a class of school children. This is because the copyright licences held by schools are different to those held by our institution. Please refer to www.copyrightandschools.org for guidance on copyright in schools.

In general TDA, HEFCE and DfE copyrighted materials are covered by crown copyright and may be reproduced in any format for non-commercial or training purposes provided that the information is accurate and properly cited. This does not apply if copyright belongs to a third party.
